Attention Professionals: Get to Know Overeaters Anonymous Silicon Valley

If you've been curious about how Overeaters Anonymous (OA) Silicon Valley can support you by helping your patients, clients, congregation, staff, or student body who are struggling with anorexia, bulimia, binge eating, obesity, overeating, nighttime eating, excessive exercise, poor body image, or any number of other food issues and compulsive eating behaviors, then we would like to invite you to spend an hour with us online (connecting from the convenience of your home) from 7:00pm to 8:00pm (Pacific time) on one of the following dates:

- Thursday, April 29, 2021
- Wednesday, July 28, 2021
- Tuesday, September 28, 2021

To register for free, please visit: <http://bit.ly/get2knowOA>

By making information about OA and its Twelve Step program of recovery available to all with any interest, we seek to bring hope and recovery to those who are suffering with our disease. We have known the pain, anguish, and isolation of this disease so we want compulsive eaters everywhere to know there is a solution. Please help us pass along this message of hope.
